

Supplemental images for "The Hittite Stone and Sculpture Quarry at Karakız Kasabası and Hapis Boğazi in the District of Sorgun, Yozgat, Central Anatolia," by Geoffrey D. Summers and Erol Özen (AJA 116 [2012] 507–19).

* Unless otherwise noted in the figure caption, images are by the authors. Image Gallery figures are not edited by AJA to the same level as the published article's figures.

Fig. 1. The höyük seen from the track between Karakız and Hapis Boğazi.

Fig. 2. The underside of the Karakız base.

Fig. 3. The Karakız base, forelegs of the second lion.

Fig. 4. Front view of the Hapis Boğazı base.

Fig. 5. Traces of quarrying on Armutlukaya Tepesi, with the höyük in the middle ground.

Fig. 6. Evidence of quarrying at Hapis Boğazi.

Fig. 7. The second portal lion at Alaca Höyük, with engaged door socket at rear.